

Butler Eagle

BC3 hosting men's hoop playoff game

Article published February 13, 2015

BUTLER TWP — The Butler County Community College men's basketball team hosts Westmoreland CC in a first-round WPCC playoff game at 6 p.m. today.

The Pioneers are seeded third in the tournament, the Wolfpack sixth.

Pioneers defeated in WPCC title game

Article published February 17, 2015

Alex Alvarez scored 25 points and grabbed 15 rebounds, but the Butler County Community College men's basketball team dropped an 88-77 decision at CCAC Boyce in the WPCC championship game Sunday.

Austin Miller scored 19 points and Dom Pusateri 16 for the Pioneers (13-14). Shae Stobert had five assists.

BC3 will compete in the upcoming Region XX, Division III Tournament being played at CCAC. County schools host WPIAL playoffs

Butler and Cardinal Wuerl North Catholic will host WPIAL basketball playoff doubleheaders this week.

Butler will host the Class AA girls Neshannock-Shady Side Academy game at 6:30 p.m. today, followed by the Class AAA boys Indiana-Central Valley game at 8 p.m.

Cardinal Wuerl North Catholic will host the Class AAA girls Chartiers Valley-Ford City game at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, followed by the Class AA boys Lincoln Park-Avonworth game at 8 p.m.

Men's basketball brief

Article published February 23, 2015

The Butler County Community College team was eliminated in the NJCAA Region 30 Division III playoffs by top-seeded Prince George (Wash.) Community College, 112-103.

The Pioneers (14-15) trailed 55-36, but rallied to cut the lead to 105-103 with two minutes remaining.

Alex Alvarez (40 points, 18 rebounds), Austin Miller (25, 10) and Dom Pusateri (19, 10 assists) all had double-doubles for BC3.